Goodin MacBride Ranked in the Top Tier of Bay Area Law Firms specializing in Energy and Communications Law

The U.S. News – Best Lawyers® ‘Best Law Firms’ rankings placed Goodin MacBride in the highest rank of Bay Area law firms specializing in Energy and Communications law for 2013.

This Tier 1 ranking for the Metropolitan Bay Area is based on a rigorous evaluation process by both attorneys and clients, as well as on peer reviews from leading attorneys in Energy and Communications Law.

In addition to earning a Tier 1 ranking locally, Goodin MacBride was ranked as a Tier 3 firm in Energy and Communications Law nationally, a significant accomplishment for a small firm competing against larger national and international law firms in these specialties. The firm congratulates all of our Regulatory Law partners, associates and staff for this recognition.
